INTERVIEW PROCESS

- We alternated in terms of asking and writing down notes, despite the fact that we also were recording with our phones.
- In terms of our questions, our interviewee.....this helped shorten our long interview process.
- We mixed the interview questions with simple ones and open ended ones that require more speaking and thinking.
- For the active listening
- Non verbal cues- sigh, tap nails, face and verbal cues were inflection.
- The questions I asked her were...answers were.....
- A little difficult for us since.....
