

Content

- Interests: "World Peace"
"International Issues"
"Telecommunication"
"Digital Media" and "Technology"
- Influenced by her grandparents who travelled all around the world

- Project: "Radio Drama" in South Sudan (Sawa Shabab) and in Iraq (Salam Shabab) by "PeaceTech Lab"

- Cultural differences between East Asia & the US:
  - 1) Bowing and handing over business cards with two hands VS. one hand
  - 2) Relationship-driven VS. Transactional
- Lack of childcare services in Japan
- The significant role of media, technology and data in driving world peace and in empowering women

Nancy Payne

Process

- On November 9th from noon to 1:00
- Interview Purpose: Exploring her contribution to Asian-US relations throughout her current and previous careers
- Mixed Structure Format:
Prepared Questions + Follow-up Questions
- Active Listening: Ex) Outcome of Radio Drama
- Verbal Cues/ Non-verbal Cues: Facial Expressions, Gestures (Head Nodding), Eye Contact, Tone

UNITED STATES
INSTITUTE OF PEACE

Nancy Payne