Dear Joe,

Enclosed is a carbon of one of the letters written to the collaborative investigators in the proposed cyclazocine-depression project, explaining our present status.

I am also enclosing ten additional reports of patients treated with cyclazocine in the narcotic study program. These are the patients who have been treated most recently and were still on the ward at the time the original summaries were contracted. Please add these to your collection.

With regard to the depression study, perhaps you would call on me in late August so that we can make the necessary arrangements.

My best wishes for pleasant fishing.

Sincerely yours,

Max Fink, M.D.
Professor of Psychiatry
