Dear Noch,

For some months, Dr. Jan Volavka, formerly of the Psychiatric Research Institute of Prague, has been working in my laboratory. He is anxious to visit some centers en route to San Diego, and I have encouraged him to see your laboratory.

He is a well trained, enthusiastic worker, with a keen interest in quantification and clinical correlations. I believe you will enjoy meeting him, and would be grateful if a visit could be arranged. He will call your laboratory on September 10 or 11.

I look forward to seeing you in San Diego and New York.

My best.

Sincerely yours,

Max Fink, M.D.
Professor of Psychiatry
