

March 26, 1970

Meditech, Inc.
65 Rogers Street
Cambridge, Mass.

Gentlemen:

I have read the report of your automated patient interviewing and clinical laboratory reporting programs for hospitals in the latest issue of Computerworld, and would be interested in obtaining any public information regarding the availability of the programs, whether their input may be adapted for psychiatric use, and the charges for programs and/or services.

Many thanks.

Sincerely yours,

Max Fink, M.D.
Professor of Psychiatry

mf/