Dear Mrs. Parker:

I would appreciate your getting the following information to the responsible officer at V. H. Winston:

I have been asked, by Science, to review a volume of Convulsive Therapy published by Walter Essman. In doing so, I indicated that some of the issues raised by Dr. Essman were discussed more extensively in "Psychobiology of Convulsive Therapy".

Miss Sylvia Eberhart is the responsible person in the book review department of Science. If a review copy of our volume has not been sent to Science, I would appreciate that one be sent to her at AAAS, 1515 Massachusetts Avenue, N.W., Washington, D. C. 20005.

Sincerely yours,

Max Fink, M. D.
Professor of Psychiatry
