Dear Dr. Hodges:

Enclosed is a reprint of one of our recent studies. For a more detailed review of the problem, I would suggest you get a copy of the volume, Psychobiology of Convulsive Therapy, published by V. H. Winston and Sons earlier this year. That volume was edited by myself, Kety, McGaugh and Williams. You may also wish to find the 1972 issue of Seminars in Psychiatry, Volume 4, No. 1, entitled, Convulsive Therapy. Both will give you a better view of the problem.

Sincerely yours,

Max Fink, M.D.
Professor of Psychiatry
