Dear Miss La Rock:

We would prefer not taking the day train to Leningrad, since that will shorten our visit to Moscow. Instead of the night train, is it possible to arrange for a flight in the early evening to Leningrad and a stay at a Leningrad hotel? That would be preferable. It would be helpful if you would submit a statement of the expenses for my trip from St. Louis to Moscow and return so that I can make the necessary arrangements with the University of Missouri. As I indicated in our telephone conversation, the statement should include all the costs in Moscow and Leningrad, visa fees, and round trip transportation, including St. Louis-New York-St. Louis.

Thank you.

Sincerely yours,

Max Fink, M.D.
