Mr. & Mrs. Henry Feivel,
7 West 81st Street,
New York City, N.Y.

Dear Maria and Henry,

As I thumbed through my mail the other day, and scanned a host of journals and junk, I saw the enclosed cover, and without looking at the credits knew immediately it was one of your friend's.

I do not think the reproduction does his work justice, but I must admit that this kind of op-art is interesting. Perhaps even more so is the fact that I can recollect of no other modern painting reproduced on the cover of this journal for many, many months. They usually use a classical, representational type of art.

Martha must have told you that we are joining you in supporting a second house. We have found a cottage overlooking the water in Strong's Neck (Setauket). This is twelve minutes from my office at the University. As Martha says, it is possible to stand in the middle of the living room with a dust cloth, turn 360°, and have completed the cleaning.

I trust the family are well.

My best regards,

Sincerely yours,

Max Fink, M.D.
