Gentlemen:

Enclosed is the reservation form and a check in the amount of $300.00 for participation in the special flights planned for participation in the International Congress of Psychology. I am writing to indicate that I would like to take my son, age 15, and am inquiring whether there are special rates or special requirements for youngsters of this age who may participate in this plan?

Sincerely yours,

Max Fink, M.D.
Professor of Psychiatry
