Dear Allen,

Thank you very much for your letter of July 11. I have called three of the investigators on the list as well as Dr. Bird and Dr. Itil. I found the vacation schedules to be so varied that no satisfactory meeting date could be selected until after Labor Day.

For this reason, I have not gone ahead with our suggested arrangements and will call you soon after Labor Day regarding the possibility of a meeting at that time.

Again, my thanks and my best wishes for a pleasant summer.

Sincerely yours,

Max Fink, M.D.
Professor of Psychiatry
