

Letters

74SB-126SB

May 10, 1974

Mr. Vincent Healy
23 Samoset Street
Dorchester, Maine 02124

Dear Mr. Healy

I regret that no mechanism exists for weekly payment for the volume of Convulsive Therapy. May I suggest that you set aside the sum you would have sent in a jar in your bedroom, and when the requisite amount is available, purchasing a money order at the Post Office. This will provide a less expensive and more direct way of solving your problem.

Good luck.

Very truly yours,

Max Fink, M. D.
Professor of Psychiatry

MF:ed