Dear Dr. Tedeschi:

I was pleased to hear your report at the CINP and to discuss it with you. I am enclosing a copy of two reviews which recently were completed for the ACNP. They describe the state of our knowledge and provide me with a basis for optimism that these techniques may be useful.

I am also enclosing a reprint which describes our methods in greater detail.

My best regards.

Sincerely yours,

Max Fink, M.D.
Professor of Psychiatry
