Dear Miss Bastiaans:

I am enclosing herewith the proofs of the first 32 pages of the bibliography and a new set of preliminary pages.

Dr. Bouthilet and Miss Cromwell have requested that they not be listed as authors of this bibliography and for this reason I have deleted their names from the first page and am requesting the insertion of an acknowledgment in the appropriate portion of the introductory pages. In addition, since the completion of this bibliography has been undertaken by other assistants at the Missouri Institute of Psychiatry, I would prefer that the acknowledgment to Mrs. Brown and the other co-workers be listed in the acknowledgment section.

I have no objections to not receiving further revisions of these pages, except that such a publication is only of merit if it is flawless. In the event that your typesetters and proofreaders believe that there still may be errors in the text, I would be pleased to have another set of proofs which I can return within 48 hours. I shall trust that you will make the decision with these facts in mind.

Sincerely yours,

Max Fink, M. D.
Director
