Dear Dr. Pickett:

I look forward to your visit on Monday, December 16, 1963. I have arranged with Mr. Lewis Stuart and Mr. Harold Hanke, officers of the Psychiatric Research Foundation, to come to the Institute at 9:00 a.m. on their way to their offices downtown.

Dr. George Ulett, the Director of the Division of Mental Diseases, will be available all day, and we can arrange to meet him at your discretion.

My associates will also be available and the Institute will be at your disposal. If you will let me know the name of your motel, I should be pleased to pick you up at 8:30 in the morning.

Sincerely yours,

Max Fink, M. D.
Executive Director
