Dear Max:

I neglected to tell you that my friends insist that if I stay in Istanbul, I must be at the Hilton in a room overlooking the Bosphorus. While I hate to be identified with the American tourist who travels from Hilton to Sheraton to Hilton, I would be foolish not to use the recommendations of Dr. Itil, who has lived there many years.

If at all possible, would you arrange that our stay be at the Hilton, overlooking the Bosphorus?

Please guarantee a full moon - nothing else would be acceptable!

My best regards.

Sincerely yours,

Max Fink, M.D.
