Dear Bob:

Following all the recommendations in our last discussion, I have accepted the full responsibility for this draft. Recognizing the emotional problems involved, I have deleted Max's name. In this draft, I have assumed the senior authorship insofar as you seem to be reluctant to do anything with the document. If you would like, I will have the first page redone and have this submitted to the Archives of General Psychiatry, with you as senior author.

If I do not hear from you, I will assume that this draft is satisfactory, and submit it as it is to Dr. Grinker.

My best regards.

Sincerely yours,

Max Fink, M.D.
Professor of Psychiatry
