Dear Joe,

Enclosed is our check as reimbursement for expenses for the June 4 meeting on narcotic antagonists. I very much appreciate your participating.

You know that the summary of the proceedings are to be published in Science.

Also, I am sure you heard that Endo (DuPont) on July 8, cancelled further supplies of naloxone for clinical trials. We protested, without avail, until our friends on the New York Times, hot on a remarkable story of industrial "responsibility", called DuPont - and within the week the edict was rescinded. Supplies are assured for 1 year was reported by the New York Times (July 14).

My best regards for a pleasant summer.

Sincerely yours,

Max Pink, M.D.
Professor of Psychiatry
