Dear Jonathan:

It was a pleasure to talk to you on Friday, and I have sent off the application to you. If I understood your wishes correctly, you implied that there are other things about which you would like me to visit you in Washington. I would be pleased to do so on my way to New York. The next two weeks are busy ones for me as I must secure all the programs of the Institute, since I will be away for six weeks.

I plan to be in New York on July 29. I can arrange to go via Washington and, if it is convenient for you, I will take TWA flight 86 to Friendship (arriving at 1:37 p.m.) and be at your office between 2:30 and 3:00 p.m.

My best regards.

Sincerely yours,

Max Fink, M.D.
