Dear Dr. Wang,

In the absence of Dr. Swanson, who has returned to South Africa, I shall try to respond to your letter to Dr. Ling.

To the best of my recollection, the participants in the LAAM-Methadone project were considered co-investigators. Surely, Dr. Swanson and I would not have volunteered our participation had this not been assumed in the negotiations.

I am surprised by the posture reflected in your letter. I trust that your view of the matter is in error, and that your letter will achieve the clarification you wish.

I trust the matter will be resolved amicably. With best wishes for a happy holiday season.

Sincerely yours,

Max Fink, M.D.
