

April 10, 1969

Dr. Norman Pitts
Chas. Pfizer & Co.
Groton, Connecticut

Dear Dr. Pitts:

In January we called to see a patient who had obtained a supply of doxepin from a "friend" and had taken, at a maximum 50 tablets. She recovered, but I feel that a summary of this experience should be made a matter of your records.

Sincerely yours,

Max Fink, M.D.
Professor of Psychiatry

NF:kp