

October 17, 1983

Billy E. Jones, M.D., Director
Department of Psychiatry
Lincoln Hospital
234 East 149 Street
Bronx, New York 10451

Dear Dr. Jones,

I regret that I am unable to accept your kind invitation to present a lecture to the staff of Lincoln Hospital. I will be unavailable on the date selected.

I recall with pleasure the lecture I gave in 1980, and the interest of the staff in so controversial a topic as convulsive therapy.

My best wishes for your success at the College.

Sincerely yours,

Max Fink, M.D.
Professor of Psychiatry