Dear Maurice:

While it will be impossible for you to forgive me, I want you to know that I was torn between two pressures that I was unable to be at Hillside last Friday. Before going to Europe I moved my family, and left Martha with painters, plumber, electrician, as well as three reluctant children who had to start in new schools. I called home from Munich and again from London, and on both occasions, was disturbed to find that I was needed at home. I shortened my trip, therefore, to arrive two days earlier. When I got home there was much to do, and it was only this weekend that we were able to look about us and feel that we could relax.

In the excitement and in the mess, both at home and in my office, I put the Hillside Hospital air travel card aside to send back to you. I cannot find it. As you know, this is very unlike me. I called Mrs. Podrid on Friday and asked her to notify United Air Lines. I would appreciate your cancelling this card, and notifying the credit agency regarding the cancellation.

My best personal regards,

Sincerely yours,

MISSOURI INSTITUTE OF PSYCHIATRY
