Dear Dr. Kelsey:

I would appreciate copies of the two reports recently prepared for the Public Health Service by the Training Materials & Information Services Division of McGraw Hill Book Company. The reports, which were for the conference held at the Airlie House, included an outline of a bio-medical research information system and secondly, a general description of a computer-based information retrieval system.

If either of these reports are in the public domain, I would appreciate receiving copies. If there are any charges, please indicate prior to submission.

Thank you for your cooperation.

Sincerely yours,

MISSOURI INSTITUTE OF PSYCHIATRY
