Dear Lorraine:

I was confused by your recent letter, and acknowledge herewith your request the the Bibliography of EEG in Human Psychopharmacology be published without your authorship. I am taking the liberty, however, of acknowledging your great assistance by the following:

"This bibliography was first prepared by the Information Unit of the Psychopharmacology Service Center, National Institute of Mental Health (now the National Clearinghouse for Mental Health Information). Dr. Lorraine Bouthilet and Miss Elaine Cromwell initiated the search...."

I trust this acknowledgment is satisfactory.

Many thanks for your cooperation.

Sincerely yours,
