Dear Professor Mitsuda,

It was kind of you to send me the fine volume of the 1973 conference on biological bases of mental illness, held in Kyoto. I had heard much of the conference, not only the excellence of the papers and the discussion, but the generosity and hospitality of the hosts in Kyoto.

The volume is an interesting milestone in biological psychiatry, and I shall treasure it in my library.

I thank you for your thoughtfulness.

Sincerely yours,

Max Fink, M.D.
