Dear Dr. Jacobsen:

Dr. Freedman and I are pleased to join you and your associates on Wednesday, November 22. Unfortunately, both he and I have commitments in the morning that would not permit us to arrive in time for lunch and would prefer to meet about 2:00pm.

Enclosed are three copies of the summary statement of our experiences with naloxone as prepared for the staff presentation on November 10. Perhaps, it would be helpful if this were made available to some of your associates prior to our meeting.

Sincerely yours,

Max Fink, M.D.
Professor of Psychiatry
