Dear Prof. Loo,

Thank you for your kind remarks in your letter of July 3. I enclose a draft of my report to the CINP -- but you should be aware that this is a reading copy and lacks the tables, figures, and references which a properly completed paper would include. You may use it for your outline, but I must ask that you not quote it directly.

I suggest that you obtain a copy of my 1979 book, CONVULSIVE THERAPY: THEORY and PRACTICE, published by Raven Press. There has been much progress since then, and I enclose additional reports which supplement my book.

You may be pleased to know that I will edit a new journal, CONVULSIVE THERAPY, to be published by Raven Press, which will appear early in 1985. Should you or your associates have reports which may be suitable for such a journal, I would be pleased to receive them.

My regards and best wishes for the success of your efforts.

Sincerely yours,

Max Fink, M.D.
Professor of Psychiatry
