Dear Art:

Under separate cover, I am sending you a copy of the old bibliography. This copy has numerous errors, is incomplete, and has been revised. The revised version has just gone to the printer and with some good fortune will be off the press by midwinter.

With regard to membership in the ACNP, I should be pleased to sponsor you. Membership requires two sponsors, and if Carl Pfeiffer would also recommend you, then the Credentials Committee could make its recommendation at the January meeting. Would you please send me a copy of your curriculum vitae so that I may write the necessary letters.

I shall be attending the ARNMD meetings in December. In response to Dr. Cole's request, it would be helpful to the Clinical Committee and to me if I could plan to visit you on Thursday, December 5. Please let me know if this date is satisfactory and I will ask one of the PSC staff members to join me.

My best regards.

Sincerely yours,

Max Fink, M. D.
Director
