Dear Joe:

I look forward to discussing the problems of the Research Committee of the Academy of Psychoanalysis in Los Angeles. It may be more helpful to call a meeting at a specific time (Friday evening? Saturday afternoon?) and see how many members can join you for the discussion of the problem that you present.

Your letter indicates that you have greater patience than I do, and that you are planning to stay at the meetings until May 10. I shall probably leave about May 6 or 7. In the event that you would be willing to leave before the end of the week, I would be delighted to have you stop by in St. Louis on your way home. We will meet you at the airport and take care of all the amenities.

My best regards,

Sincerely yours,

Max Fink, M.D.
