Dear Bob:

The article "Sociopsychological Aspects of Psychiatric Treatment" appeared in the latest issue of the Archives, Volume 14. We have received the tear sheets and I am sending you a supply. The reprints will follow and I will send these on to you when I receive them.

We have already received a number of reprint requests and they will be answered.

I visited your fine city last Tuesday and put in a call to you. I had the occasion to visit the Illinois State Psychiatric Institute. It is a fine research and training center. I was very much impressed with the facilities, and with those members of the staff whom I met, including the clinical director who spoke highly of his contacts with you.

I hope to have the opportunity to visit Chicago soon, and would like at that time to call you.

My best regards.

Sincerely yours,

Max Fink, M.D.
Professor of Psychiatry
