Dear Friends:

Three days ago I received a package from Hillside Hospital and was both surprised and pleased with the selection of gifts. I have put both the desk set and the dictionary to use and believe that both are most appropriate to my present needs.

I regret that in the hectic days of Mid-September I was unable to be with you for the formal presentation. I would have enjoyed being there, and hope that we can get together some time soon.

Accepting your good thoughts, I am taking the liberty of enclosing a copy of the announcement of the new Institute, knowing that in this you will see the potential fulfillment of some of our dreams and aspirations.

My best regards,

Sincerely yours,

MISSOURI INSTITUTE OF PSYCHIATRY
