

October 12, 1971

Dear Irv,

Dr. Harold Escover was a student of mine at Hillside Hospital. After I left he assumed responsibility for the training program. With the reorganization at Hillside and his remarriage, he now seeks work in New York City.

He is a diligent and serious worker and I can recommend him highly. If he can work within our program, perhaps you should see him.

Max Fink