

December 21, 1987

Jay Amsterdam, M.D.
Depression Research Unit
Hospital of the University of Pennsylvania
36th & Spruce Streets
Philadelphia, PA 19104-4283

Dear Jay,

When you called on Friday, you seemed surprised that many Europeans knew of your plans to develop a conference on the treatment of therapy-resistant depression. Reading the latest Bulletin of the Royal College of Psychiatrists should clarify the mystery -- one of your co-workers or consultants has let the cat out of the bag.

My regards.

Sincerely yours,

Max Fink, M.D.
Professor of Psychiatry