Dear Keith:

In reading the ACNP program in detail, I find that our session is a two day one, January 16th and 17th. I have already notified Drs. Stern and Burch about the possibility of being in session for two days.

Would you please indicate this to our other invited guests?

I also note that the administrators indicate that we are "allowed" four guests for consultants. I believe this limitation is an impractical one and, with your concurrence, I think we should disregard this.

My best regards.

Sincerely yours,

Max Fink, M. D.
