Dear Dr. Waskow:

During the past year, I have been aware that you have been writing a review of language changes with LSD. My associate, Dr. A. Don, is presenting a report of our recent LSD induced changes in EEG and TTR at the divisional meeting of the APA.

It would be helpful to us if a copy of your report could be made available to him, even before it is published, so that he can place his observations in their proper content and, incidentally, give credit to PSC for your efforts.

Thank you for your help.

Sincerely yours,

Max Fink, M.D.
Professor of Psychiatry
