Dear Dr. Slotnick:

Recently, Dr. Hewson was kind enough to write regarding a population of patients with mental retardation that might be candidates for trial with haloperidol.

When I called, I indicated that I would inquire at this College and did so. While there are populations available, I have not been able to enlist the support of a member of the staff to undertake such a study at this time. The Department of Pediatrics indicated that they might wish to recommend a pediatrician early next year. In the event that such a staff person is available, I will write to you again.

Thank you very much for your interest.

Sincerely yours,

Max Fink, M.D.
Professor of Psychiatry
