Dear Ms. Lamb,

I have read the responses to the letter of Dr. Kaiser. In the juxtaposition and editing, I found a few places where the meaning has been altered and I commend some corrections to your attention, which I assume you will accept.

I have also indicated some questions raised by the letter of Dr. Claghorn. I believe it is filled with errors and I do hope that you will check the questions with him. It would be unfortunate if your journal, after a useful beginning, were to give voice to unproven and undocumented allegations, opinions and experiences. I am sure that Dr. Claghorn knows better, and a little encouragement will get him to clean up his sections, I hope.

Sincerely yours,

Max Fink, M.D.
