Dear Andy,

I was stimulated to review this report on LSD by our discussion. I have had it retyped. Unfortunately, I cannot find the references in any of the copies in my file. I also feel that the report is less sophisticated in its review of LSD on psychotherapy than the recent literature allows.

Would you find the time to add the references and review as much of the recent literature as is available to you?

I would be grateful for your comments. My best regards.

Sincerely yours,

Max Fink, M.D.
