Dear Noch:

I have just spent a very pleasant day with one of your co-workers, David Kessler. He seems to have a very nice opportunity and I think Dr. Simon was most generous in allowing him this jaunt across the country. I hope we answered his questions.

Both Sam and I regret that the slides were broken. We will collect another set and I will ask him to take them with him to Los Angeles and deliver them to you or one of your representatives, personally.

I do not know if I can get to San Francisco, but look forward to seeing you in L.A. I will bring my tennis racket and shoes, and, perhaps, we can find a court near the hotel.

My best regards.

Sincerely yours,

Max Fink, M. D.
Director
