Dear Martin:

Thank you very much for sending me a copy of the Handbook of Psychiatric Rating Scales. I would like to review this with one of my associates, Dr. Holden. Unfortunately, he is now on vacation and will return about July 15. I will make every effort to return this copy to you by the end of July, and I hope that is satisfactory. If not, I can return it within a week after making some notes for him, although I would prefer getting the opportunity to review the whole volume since I am trying to educate him in the problems of rating scales.

Many thanks.

Sincerely yours,

Max Fink, M.D.
Professor of Psychiatry
