Dear Dr. Blum,

Thank you for the invitation to participate in the volume, "Social Meaning of Drugs." I regret that my present commitments are too great to allow me to give this question proper attention.

As an alternate, you may wish to invite Alfred K. Freedman, M.D., of the New York Medical College. He is unusually sophisticated in the issues of the social and clinical uses of drugs.

Sincerely yours,

Max Fink, M.D.
Professor of Psychiatry
