Dear Mr. Egerton,

Enclosed is a table of contents, indicating the order of presentations; a list of participants, and the conference committee and acknowledgements, for inclusion in the volume on the Psychobiology of Convulsive Therapy. By now, you should have received two packages including all the edited draft copies of the chapters of the volume.

I shall be out of the country until September 14, and would appreciate hearing from you about that time as to the next steps in the publication of this volume.

My thanks for your cooperation and patience.

Sincerely yours,

Max Fink, M.D.
Professor of Psychiatry
