Dear Hanna:

A few weeks ago Max approached me to support your position at Hillside during the next six months. The ambiguities that developed during last summer have made it impossible for me to feel that I can supervise or participate directly in any of the studies going on in New York. I have written Max that I cannot participate and can only trust his judgement to utilize the funds left by the government to the fullest extent indicated in the original grants.

I am sorry if this causes you personal difficulty. I shall do my best to provide you with letters of recommendation which may be necessary for you to find another position. In the event that the original analyses are left incomplete, I would appreciate your sending me whatever data sheets and records you may have.

Sincerely yours,

MISSOURI INSTITUTE OF PSYCHIATRY
