Dear Sam:

"For want of a nail, a shoe was lost . . ."

The rest of the story is obvious, and I regret that the events of the past two years culminated in the present resolution.

However, I am taking this opportunity to thank you personally, not only for your kind comments on behalf of the Missouri Institute of Psychiatry but also because you were one of the few members of the faculty who took the time and trouble to welcome me to St. Louis. For your hospitality, and your efforts on behalf of the Institute, I shall always be grateful.

Sincerely yours,

Max Fink, M.D.
