Dear Allen,

On my letter of May 25, 1970, I indicated that Drs. Simeon, Spero and I are agreeable to having the reprints of our report, "A Comparison of Doxepin and Chlordiazepoxide in the Therapy of Anxiety" distributed to physicians by your professional representatives in the course of their visits to physicians; or in the course of their replies to inquiries. We indicated that the article not be used in the usual promotional material or quoted out of context as a general endorsement of this product.

Dr. Oliver Nikolovski concurs in this approval.

Sincerely yours,

Max Fink, M.D.
Professor of Psychiatry
