Dear Dr. Tu:

We would be pleased to consider your application for appointment, except that the satisfactory completion of the ECFMG examination is prerequisite. Since the temporary certificate issued in 1960 has expired, it is no longer valid for our use. I would recommend that you reapply for the examination and when a satisfactory certificate is available, we would be pleased to consider this application. In the meanwhile, I hesitate to write to your referees and am taking the liberty of returning the expired certificate for your files.

Thank you very much for your inquiry.

Sincerely yours,

Max Fink, M. D.
Director
