

October 29, 1988

Alexander Gralnick, M.D.
Upper King Street
Rye Brook, New York 10573

Dear Alex,

Good for you! Your article in yesterday's New York Times expressed what we feel, ashamed and uneasy, on hearing and seeing the anti-liberal, NO-NOTHING, anti-American attitudes of Mr. Bush and his accomplices. I did think the American people were stupid when they elected Mr. Reagan, and when they did it again, it was a disaster. But the blatant anti-liberal, anti-black, pro-Redneck, flag-waving, anti-abortion, and anti-environmental blandishments of the Republicans far exceeds even the excesses of the sleazy government which Mr. Reagan brought to Washington.

Your article is important and you are to be congratulated, and thanked, by all of us 'liberals' who see the U.S. Constitution as the main hope of mankind in this crazy world.

Keep it up. My best regards.

Sincerely yours,

Max Fink, M.D.
Professor of Psychiatry