

Interviewee Name: Jiviben
Interviewee gender: Female
Using Bhungroo Yes/No:

[They have already asked 15 questions to the husband so they know a lot of stuff already.]

Q1. Before the installation of borewell, how much did you have to work?

A1. We had to do farming. We had to go to Kathiawad to get the soil.

Q2. Your cattle in the village, who manages it? Especially when you go to kathiawad?

A2. We appoint someone to look after it.

Q3. Does your husband makes you work in the house?

A3. Yes the regular household chores. My husband does his work.

Q4. Can you explain your work?

A4. Looking after the cattle, getting fodder for the cattle and cooking.

[She has been keeping sick for the past 3 days so she is forgetting some details (this is what the lady said)]

Q5. How old are you?

A5. [They don't know the birthday so they said write 40.]

Q6. When you have guests over, does your husband help?

A6. No that has to be handled by the females of the house. [The interviewer said that times are changing, now the husband helps too.]

Q7. Does your daughter in law help you?

A7. Yes

Q8. Does your son help his wife?

A8. No

Q9. After borewell, what changes did you see?

A9. There were benefits. Increased availability of water. Earlier we all had to go for mazuri (laborwork) now not anymore. We have paid off our debts.

Q10. Any increase in number of sarees or gold?

A10. [They did become financially strong. They now donate money to the temple.]

Q11. Are you involved in any organization?

A11. Yes mahila manadal.

Q12. What do you do?

A12. We collect money and save it.

Q13. What do you do of the money?

A13. We did the collection earlier and the lady collecting it ran away so we created a new organization. [She was then motivating the interviewer to start a mahila mandal]

Q14. Did you get any social recognition?

A14. Yes, people around think we are well to do especially our in laws.

Q15. Did your husbands behavior change towards you?

A15. Yes not the entire family works together so the work is less and there is peace. They have 2 sons who work with the father.

Q16. Do you worship god?

A16. Yes, but nothing exaggerated. We attend bhajan and puja.

Q17. What do you ask for?

A17. Family wealth and happiness.